Community Development

---

Appropriation: $ 8,036,203

Community Development is charged with overseeing city grant activities, administering the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program; the HOME Program; the Home Improvement and Homebuyer Programs; the Small Business Development Revolving Loan Fund; the Arts Commission; the Children & Youth Commission; and the Monica Roybal Youth Center. The division also oversees related housing/ economic development initiatives, human services, and children and youth activities throughout the community.

2003/04 Operational Highlights:

- Presented the third annual ArtWorks, a year-round initiative to integrate arts education into the public school curriculum.
- Conducted a needs assessment to establish funding priorities, evaluate proposals, provide technical assistance and monitor and evaluate all programs funded by the Children & Youth Commission each year in order to assure contract compliance.
- Increased parental and community involvement in order to better serve the needs of children and youth and expand the availability of reading, homework and computer tutoring programs; provided leadership for community collaborations to implement the Children and Youth Strategic Plan.
- Served 1,620 children aged 6-12 and over 200 teens.
- Continued the mission of building the capacity of nonprofit housing partners and working to make appropriate land available for affordable housing development, including a portion of the city-owned land in the northwest quadrant; and continued to administer the Housing Opportunity Program to require affordable housing in all residential developments in Santa Fe.
- Organized an affordable housing fair focused on the Spanish-speaking immigrant community, offering information about renters' rights and homeownership opportunities.
- Continued planning for the creation of a Sobering Center, which will be used to divert substance abuse and mental health cases away from the county jail by providing an alternative to detention for persons experiencing behavioral health crises or substance abuse in the community.
- Monitored and prepared contracts and performed site visits on all funded programs once a year in order to assure contracted service availability and program quality.
- Continued to furnish departments and local non-profit organizations with potential funding data from the Federal Register, Federal Assistance Monitor and foundation directories, as well as providing technical assistance in grant proposal development.
- Developed and completed the master plan for the City's proposed Aviation Business Center (ABC), formerly known as the Airport Industrial Park.
- Implemented a truancy prevention, day reporting and intensive community monitoring program in conjunction with Santa Fe Public Schools and the Children, Youth and Families Program's Juvenile Probation and Parole program.

2004/05 Goals and Objectives:

- Continue to support non-profit arts and cultural organizations through funding and other forms of assistance, showcasing Santa Fe's diverse cultural voices in order to build community connections through the arts.
- Further strengthen the city's role in community-wide planning, coordination, and facilitation of activities, events, programs, and services for infants, children, teens and young adults, from birth through age twenty-one.
- Continue to support community-based non-profits serving human services needs.
- Provide support for the first year implementation of the Santa Fe CARE Connection to provide mental health assessments and referrals for adults to local non-profit providers.
- Coordinate with the New Mexico Children, Youth and Families Department, the First Judicial District, the District Attorney's Office, Santa Fe County Youth Development Centers, and local non-profits to implement the strategic plan to address juvenile justice issues.
- Continue to work with local developers and non-profit housing organizations in developing affordable housing solutions for the community.
- Administer the Economic Development Fund and the Small Business Development Loan Fund to provide ongoing funding for economic development activities, including business loans and support services.
- Continue to work with the Santa Fe Business Incubator to create new business and employment opportunities in the community.

Budget Commentary:

The FY 2004/05 General Fund operating budget is $1,501,219, which includes funding for 17 staff members and associated operating costs.

The FY 2004/05 operating budget for the Arts Commission is $1,163,520, which is funded by the 1% Lodgers Tax Fund (2112). This budget supports 85% of the Arts Commission Director's salary and related administrative expenses. The remaining 15% is funded by the Art for CIP Projects Fund (3708), with a total budget of $144,557. The 1% Lodgers Tax Fund also provides the 25% balance of funding for the Administrative Assistant position that is shared with the Community Service Administration Division.

The City of Santa Fe is also a recipient of several grants from individuals and organizations to support youth arts education. The amount allocated for FY 2004/05 is $10,000 for the Arts Education Grants Program (2714).

The Economic Development Fund (2117) provides $1,198,010 to support economic development activities in the City of Santa Fe. The FY 2004/05 budget reflects the planned implementation of new economic development priorities adopted by the City Council in June 2004.

The Quality of Life Fund (2505) provides funding support of $461,475 for various youth activities programs, and includes a transfer of $330,840 to the Recreation Fund (2705) to support youth recreation activities.

The FY 2004/05 CDBG (2506) budget is $689,000, which provides funding from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for a Senior Planner position and administrative costs to operate the program, as well as pass-through funding for community non-profit service providers. For FY 2004/05, HUD also provides funding in the amount of $339,432 for the Shelter Plus Care Program (2509), through which about $400,000 is administered in Santa Fe to support rental assistance programs for people with special needs.

For FY 2004/05, the City Council has allocated $1,067,537 for the Children & Youth Fund (2513). The operating budget will support the salary and benefits of a Youth Planner, contractual agreements with organizations for children and youth programs, and operating expenses to administer the program from state-shared gross receipt taxes in an amount equal to 3% of the receipt taxes. In addition, the Juvenile Justice Fund (2516) provides $371,465 from a state grant for programs to address juvenile justice issues facing the community. Summer Youth Program activities are supported by the Recreation Fund (2705) budget of $399,416, which includes funding for 122 seasonal employees and various youth summer program activities.

The Human Service Providers Fund (2515) supports various agencies and organizations providing substance abuse treatment, delinquency prevention and other services to the community. These activities are supported by an appropriation of $689,084 for FY 2004/05, which is transferred from the General Fund.
